

OCPL Libraries Book Donations

Last updated: January 2023

Baldwinsville Public Library – Donations accepted the weeks before and after our book sales, which are 4 times a year (generally the first weekend of Feb, May, Aug, Nov). No textbooks, call ahead if there is more than one box of donations.

Community Library of DeWitt & Jamesville – Please call the Library (315-446-3578) about what is currently being accepted for donation or visit their website: www.CLDandJ.org.

East Syracuse Free Library – Donations accepted but call first.

Elbridge- Only accepts donations if they were published in the last 3 years and are in excellent condition. Donations must be approved first.

Fairmount Community Library – Accepting book donations in May and June for their June sale.

Fayetteville Free Library – Accepting 1 box at a time, schedule an appointment for more.

Jordan – Donations accepted only in clean and good condition (no textbooks, encyclopedias, or Nat. Geos).

Liverpool Public Library – Accepts donations the first two weeks of every month. Two box limit. See their website for guidelines.

LaFayette Public Library – Donations accepted, no textbooks/encyclopedias/Readers Digest, in good condition only.

Manlius Library – Accepting donations, view their website for guidelines.

Marcellus Free Library – 1 box at a time. Call to make arrangements if you have more.

Maxwell Memorial Library – 1 box/bag per visit, no textbooks/encyclopedias/Readers Digest, nothing in poor condition (smelly, moldy)

Minoa Library – Accepts donations from January through June. Two box limit, no encyclopedias, magazines, older non-fiction. Nothing in poor condition.

NOPL – Donations accepted April-October only.

Onondaga Free Library – Not accepting donations at this time.

Salina Library – One box at a time, schedule an appointment for more.

Skaneateles Library – Accepting donations, view their website for guidelines.

Solvay Public Library – No donations at this time.

Tully Free Library – No donations at this time.